The screenshot shows the PayPal checkout interface. At the top left is the PayPal logo. To its right is a shopping cart icon and the text "$65.00 USD" with a dropdown arrow. Below this is the heading "Pay with PayPal" followed by "English" with a dropdown arrow. There are two input fields: "Email" and "Password". Below these is a checkbox labeled "Stay logged in for faster checkout" with a question mark icon. Underneath is a security notice: "For your security, we'll always ask you to log in to update your PayPal personal or financial info." A blue "Log In" button is positioned below the notice. Below the button is the text "Having trouble logging in?". A horizontal line with "or" in the center separates the login section from the payment options. At the bottom is a grey button labeled "Pay with Debit or Credit Card". A red box at the top right contains the instruction: "5. Login to your PayPal account, or select the option to Pay with Debit or Credit Card." Two red arrows originate from this box: one points to the "Pay with PayPal" heading, and the other points to the "Pay with Debit or Credit Card" button. To the right of the login fields is a graphic of a smartphone displaying the PayPal logo, with the text "New. Faster. Easier." and a welcome message: "Welcome to the new PayPal checkout! The security you rely on – now even faster. It's everything checkout should be." At the bottom right of the page, there are links for "Policies", "Terms", "Privacy", and "Feedback", along with the copyright notice "© 1999 - 2016" and a lock icon.
